

Great Bedwyn Parish Council Policy and procedure for co-opting a new Councillor

This procedure is based on NALC Legal Briefing L15-08 – Good practice for selection of candidates for co-option to local Councils.

Parish Councils are permitted to exercise the power to co-opt a person on to the Council to fill a casual vacancy when the requirements to hold an election have not been met (i.e. The vacancy has been the subject of a public notice and less than 10 registered electors have requested an election by a deadline date specified by the District Returning Officer).

Although seeking “expressions of interest” is not a legal requirement, the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) recommends that Councils always give public notice of vacancies because this makes the process of co-option open and transparent and should attract more potential candidates.

Whenever the need for co-option arises, Great Bedwyn Parish Council will consider advertising the vacancy to seek and encourage ‘expressions of interest’ by a specified date from anyone living or working in the parish of Great Bedwyn or within 3 miles of its boundaries who is eligible to stand as a Parish Councillor. All potential candidates will be requested to put their request for consideration by completing an application form (See Appendix A).

Please note it is a condition of a Councillor that a means of contact by e-mail will be public information. A Council email address will be provided. A Declaration of Interests Form must be completed and will be published.

At the relevant Full Council meeting:

- i. Clerk to confirm that each candidate is qualified to become a Councillor and is not disqualified from being a Councillor as set out in the Local Government Act 1972 s79 and s80;
- ii. Chairman to offer opportunity for debate on the order of priority to offer co-option
- iii. Vote on the acceptability of each candidate for co-option, utilising the ‘person specification’ criteria set out below and any personal statements requested from and provided by candidates. An absolute majority vote is required for each candidate from all members present and entitled to vote (LGA 1972 Sch. 12. Para 39) (The applicant with the least number of votes casted will be deleted and the vote taken again and again etc. until the number of candidates equals the number of vacancies);
- iv. The Clerk to ensure the successful candidates(s) sign the Declaration of Office of Acceptance if the new Councillor is in attendance in order that they may join the meeting as a councillor. If the Councillor is not in attendance, the Clerk will ensure this is signed at the first available opportunity.
- v. The Clerk to notify Electoral Services of the new Councillor appointment, and initiate ‘registration of interests’ on the Council website.
